

ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND.

Letter from the President
Read to Veterans.

Union Army Was a Great
Brotherhood of Men.

Regrets from Ex-Judge Parker—Reid's Criticisms.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Sept. 20.—The letter of President Roosevelt read at the annual meeting of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland was as follows:

OYSTER BAY (N. Y.) Aug. 30, 1904.
My Dear Gen. Boynton: Permit me, through you, to extend my hearty good wishes to the Society of the Army of the Cumberland at its reunion in Indianapolis. I only wish it were in my power to be present.

The record of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland is indeed noteworthy. Three of its members were Presidents of the United States—Grant, Garfield and Harrison. Four commanded the army after the Civil War—Grant, Sheridan, Sherman and Schofield. Two reached the Supreme Court—Mathews and Harlan. You have had many members in the cabinet, in the Senate and in the House of Representatives. One of them, Gen. Kiefer, became Speaker of the House. For this exceptional record you are entitled to the respect and admiration of your countrymen; but, after all, the great claim that you have upon all the people of this nation rests upon the fact that all of you, from the major-general to the private, did your full part in that great brotherhood of men who formed the Union Army from 1861 to 1865, and who, during those years, rendered not only to our people, but to all mankind, the greatest service which it was given to any men of the nineteenth century to render.

The men who served in the great Civil War left to their children and their children's children, and the remotest generation, not merely a reunited country, not merely the sense of belonging to a nation which has before it a future so vast that even its most loyal sons can hardly venture to anticipate it; but you left to them also the memory of the way in which that formidable army of fighting men, when once the war was ended, turned forthwith to the pursuits of peace and showed themselves good citizens at home, just as they had shown themselves good soldiers at the front.

In any great crisis of war this nation must rely mainly upon its volunteer soldiery, and the veterans of the Civil War have left us forever the model of what such a soldier should be. We of the younger generation owe you a debt greater than we can ever pay, alike for the lessons you taught in war and the lessons you taught in peace.

With the heartiest regards and with every cordial wish for the success of your reunion, believe me,

Very faithfully yours,
[Signed.] THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Ex-Judge Parker sent the following:

ROSEMONT, ESOPUS, N. Y., August 31, 1904.

Gen. H. V. Boynton, My dear Sir: I very much regret that it is impossible for me to attend the thirty-second annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland. Will you be kind enough to convey to the society assurances of my regret and very grateful appreciation.

Very truly yours,

[Signed.] ALTON B. PARKER.

From Whitelaw-Reid came the following:

CAMP WILDAIR, UPPER ST. REGIS, Sept. 9.

Gen. H. V. Boynton, President Society of the Army of the Cumberland, Dear General Boynton: An invitation to address your society on the battle of Pittsburgh Landing can only be esteemed by any man who was there to be a privilege and a great honor. I beg to tender my sincere thanks for it to you personally and to the historic body you represent.

Over twenty years ago Gen. Sherman wrote me a similar invitation on behalf of the Army of the Tennessee. It happened that I was just going to Europe for a considerable absence and was thus compelled to forego the honor, but in expressing regret I ventured to tell Gen. Sherman that if ever I should be able to meet such a call I should hope to have the Army of the Cumberland in the audience.

Unfortunately for me, your meeting comes at the exact date when my position as a director of the Associated Press requires attendance for our annual meetings in New York. Nothing but such clear duty would now prevent me from standing up before the honored survivors of the army that saved many a lost field in the greatest battle of the Civil War, at the West and recounting face to face what I heard of the anticipations of the leading commanders from their own lips the night before, what I saw on the first morning of the battle along the banks of the river for three miles below Pittsburgh Landing; what I saw the first forenoon on the field, when and under what circumstances I saw the advance of Buell's army greeted on the narrow strip of land by the river side into which our people had been forced, and especially when and how those splendid, compact ranks advanced over the ground that had been lost.

I should like, too, to ask this society to consider if it does not yet owe a duty to itself and to its honored dead. Official publications have only recently come to my knowledge in which, aside from personal errors that need not be noticed, there appears a strange distortion of facts as to when the several parts of the Army of the Ohio became engaged with the enemy on the 6th and 7th of April, 1862. An old book of my own, "Ohio in the War," printed long before the official reports were accessible, is quoted as one authority for these statements. But in some few cases

I have already been able to collate they agree neither with that work nor with the official reports, nor with themselves, and the time when certain regiments went into action is set down on the very monuments the State has erected on the spot, three or four hours after they had been hotly engaged and the field had been well regained. Whether this is due to a blundering effort to whitewash, which need not so treacherous props to their solid renown and to do it at the expense of the Army of the Ohio, or whether it is due to mere incompetence, the effect is the same. Can your society, in loyalty to itself and to its martyrs on that field, permit these misrepresentations to stand? Believe me, with renewed thanks and regrets,

Very sincerely yours,

[Signed.] WHITE LAUREL REID.

OFFICERS CHOSEN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 20.—The Nominating Committee made its report during the afternoon session. The following officers were chosen: President, Gen. V. Boynton, Washington; corresponding secretary, Maj. John Tweedale, U.S.A., Washington; recording secretary, Col. John W. Steie, Oberlin, O.; treasurer, Gen. Frank A. Smith, U.S.A., following the report of the Nominating Committee, adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

To the bugle notes of the "Assembly" the army and veterans assembled in the Claypool Auditorium to-night for the public exercises which marked the closing of the reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland. At 7 o'clock Gen. H. V. Boynton called the meeting to order. The letters of President Roosevelt, Whitelaw Reid and Parker were greeted with a burst of cheers.

"The Grand Army of the Republic," the subject of the address by Commander-in-Chief Blackmar of the G. A. R., elicited great applause. Gen. Grosvener of Ohio also spoke, and the exercises closed with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

SHIPBUILDING REHABILITATION.

SCHWAB'S SCHEME TO MAKE THE CORPSE WAKE UP.

With the Bethlehem Steel Company as a Nucleus, After All the Foreclosure Sales, Reorganization of Combine Will Try to Be Effected, Says New York Herald.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Plans are rapidly being consummated, says the Herald, for the rehabilitation of the shipbuilding combination. Within a month the last foreclosure sale of the several plants will have been completed.

The Bath Iron Works and the Hyde plant, in Maine, having been purchased by the Reorganization Committee of the United States Shipbuilding Company, Charles M. Schwab will start tomorrow for San Francisco to the receiver, former Senator James Smith, Jr., to attend the sale of the Union Iron Works.

The nucleus of the new concern is to be the Bethlehem Steel company. The Union Iron Works at San Francisco will be sold September 24 and the Harlan and Hollingsworth Works at Wilmington, Del., will be sold the first week in October. By November 1 the Schwab interests are expected to have at the details of the reorganization completed.

The total mortgage and capital liabilities of the new combination is $15,000,000, made up of $10,000,000 of new stock ($15,000,000 7 per cent preferred stock and $15,000,000 common stock) and a $5,000,000 new bond issue.

TOO MUCH SOCIALISM.

Orthodox Jews of London Stone Club House Where Fellow Hebrews Feast and Drink.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
LONDON, Sept. 20.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Day of Atonement was marked in London by riotous rioting in the Jewish quarter of the East End. Over two thousand Jews engaged in a disturbance and nearly three hundred police had to be called out before the disorder was quelled.

The trouble arose over the action of the non-conforming members of a Social Democratic Jewish club at Spitalfields, situated in the heart of a district containing about twenty thousand Jewish inhabitants. The Socialists openly paraded, in disregard of the fasting injunction, and made a celebration with wines at the clubhouse.

The orthodox Jews were angered and surrounded the clubhouse and stoned it. The Socialists threw bottles at the crowd and soon the three East End streets in the vicinity became choked by the fighting mob. Ambulances were called out and the doctors had many minor cases to attend to.

Finally, the police quelled the disturbance, cordoned off the streets and the disturbed area and made several arrests. Excited groups of orthodox Jews, however, continued to parade the streets and the houses of several socialist Jews were stoned.

DOWN WITH HOODLUMS.

Brooklyn Business Men of Standing Incorporate and Get Police Power to Use on Toughs.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Sworn to put an end to the existence of gangs of street hoodlums, lawless organizations of foreigners, stop the carrying of concealed weapons, and to protect women from assault and annoyance by rowdies, seventy-four business men of Brooklyn were sworn in as members of the Citizens Protective League for Law and Order.

The incorporators propose to encourage men of intelligence and standing to join the league and to open what they call membership to everybody who may wish to join. Sheriff Hesterberg of Kings county has appointed the members deputy sheriff and steps may be taken to secure, later, special police powers for members of the organization.

Special details will be assigned to work among the great crowds which surge to the Brooklyn bridge during the rush hours of morning and evening. These details will make extraordinary efforts to suppress rowdiness in every form.

END OF "BILLY" MATTHEWS.

BAD AXE (Mich.) Sept. 20.—W. Hudson Matthews, well known to the hunters of Michigan as "Billy" Matthews, was drowned in Saginaw Bay while out with a boat near his bungalow, situated between Sebewaing and Bay Port. He was one of the best wing shots in Canada, and was well known among Detroit bird hunters. His body has not yet been found.

Crank Says He Went to Heaven in Automobile.

But Has Mysterious Message for the President.

J. E. Reeves Arrested at Oyster Bay as Insane.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

OYSTER BAY, (L. I.) Sept. 20. A man who is regarded by the Secret Service officials and by the authorities of Oyster Bay as a dangerous crank was apprehended here today. He is J. E. Reeves, a medium-sized, roughly-attired man, about forty years old. He was making his way to Sagamore Hill when he was arrested. He told Officer Tyree, who apprehended him, that he wanted to see the President on important business. Believing from the man's manner that he was insane, Officer Tyree took him before Justice Franklin for examination.

To the justice, Reeves said that six years ago he died in a Jersey City hospital, and went to Heaven in an automobile. While there he received an important message for President Roosevelt, which he was directed to deliver personally. He refused to say what the nature of the message was, as he declared he could communicate it to nobody but the President. He declared to the justice, however, that he had written a book on his experiences in Heaven which he desired to have published, as he was satisfied millions of dollars could be made out of it. The President, he said, undoubtedly would join with him in securing the publication of the work, and that was one reason why he wished to have a talk with him.

Reeves, who talked as if he had enjoyed some educational advantages, said he was a resident of Baltimore. He had in his pockets $2 in cash and some unimportant papers, but no weapons.

Justice Franklin, after the examination, being convinced the man was insane and very likely dangerous, deputed one of the Secret Service men to take him to Mineola, where a formal inquiry into his mental condition will be held.

NOT KNOWN IN BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE (Md.) Sept. 20.—The name of J. E. Reeves does not appear in the Baltimore City Directory, and he is not known to the local police.

IS DECLARED INSANE.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 21.—Reeves was later examined as to his sanity at the Nassau County Jail in Mineola by two physicians, and declared insane.

THE PRESIDENT'S GUESTS.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 20.—As no visitors had engagements at Sagamore Hill today, the President and Mrs. Roosevelt left for a boating excursion on the Sound.

Already several important engagements have been made by the President. He will leave for the White House tomorrow, and will be accompanied by the ambassador of France, M. Pichard, the head of the French commission to the St. Louis exposition, Saturday afternoon. The President will receive the delegates to the Inter-parliamentary Peace Conference, which was held recently at St. Louis. Saturday night, the President and Mrs. Roosevelt will entertain at a large dinner given in honor of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The guests at the dinner will include members of the cabinet and other notable people in public and civil life.

INTERRUPTED DEPUTY.

Stranger Butts in White Maytlan Legislator is Discussing Concession.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
PORT AU PRINCE (Hayti) Sept. 20.—[By West Indian Cable.] The fact that a deputy was interrupted by an outsider while speaking in the Chamber of Communes yesterday has caused an international incident of a mild character.

The Haytian government some time ago granted two American citizens concessions for the construction and exploitation of a railroad from Gonaves to Hinche, an important line, passing through a rich part of the country.

The concession was being discussed in the chamber yesterday when one of the members of the opposition, a foreigner, interrupted a deputy who was speaking, which caused so much indignation among the deputies that the motion to approve the concession was rejected.

President Nord, however, has informed the American Minister, Mr. Powell, that reparation will be made for the regrettable incident and that the concession will be approved at the next session of the legislature.

HUNT FOR HUNTER.

Chicago Boy Who Went Out for Deer in the Adirondacks Found in Exhausted Condition.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
CRANBERRY LAKE (N. Y.) Sept. 20.—Exhausted after two days' wandering in the swamps and dense forest of the Adirondacks, George Wilson, 16 years old, of Chicago, has been found by guides and hotel guests.

The lad started out Saturday to hunt deer. When found he was exhausted in a swamp and half famished. His clothing was shreds and his feet bruised and torn. Wilson said he saw the deer several times from different points in the mountains but was unable to shoot at them because of the darkness of the night and the distance.

He was found by a party of hunters who had been searching for him since Saturday. He was taken to the Cranberry Lake hotel, where he is now recovering from his exhaustion.

THE VERY LATEST. WAR NEWS AFTER MIDNIGHT.

ASSOCIATED PRESS HEADQUARTERS (N. Y.) Sept. 21.—Port Arthur is again the center of interest as regards the war in the Far East. A general attack by land and sea is regarded as likely to follow the Japanese assault upon the redoubt protecting the water supply of the fortress and town and participation of the fleet under Admiral Togo is looked for. In this latter event it is expected that the remnant of the Russian squadron in the port will rally to engage the Japanese ships.

Slight and possibly nine Japanese divisions are advancing on Mukden and another battle between the armies under Gen. Kuroki and Gen. Kouropatkin is imminent.

St. Petersburg has heard that the Russian Baltic squadron has been reinforced by four warships purchased from Argentina.

ADDITION TO BALTIC FLEET.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
BERLIN, Sept. 21.—The correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger has telegraphed that the Russian Baltic fleet, in command of the Russian Baltic fleet, in the course of which the admiral declares that he expects three additional vessels before long, and that with the augmented squadron, after necessary maneuvers, he will leave for the Far East.

The correspondent dimly intimates that the arrival of this squadron at Vladivostok need not be expected before spring.

DUMDUM BULLETS USED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
PARIS, Sept. 21.—The Matin's Cheffo correspondent telegraphs the following:

"The use of dum dum bullets by Russians is confirmed, a Russian having confessed to me that he brought a thousand such bullets with him and used 300 of them. I believe this case was of individual initiative, for which the authorities are not responsible. On the other hand, a witness affirms that Russian soldiers at Port Arthur have been killed by explosive bullets."

ORLOFF STILL ALIVE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20, 6:55 p.m.—The report circulated in certain quarters that Maj. Gen. Orloff, who had been held responsible for Gen. Kouropatkin's retirement from the defenses had fallen into the hands of the Japanese as the result of a general assault September 20, is not confirmed from Russian sources. The reports brought to Chefoo by Prince Radivil have not yet reached the War Office. It is understood that dispatches contain details of the landing of the strong Japanese reinforcements at Dalny, which would tend to confirm the belief that it is the intention of the Japanese to storm the fortress, and the warships will probably take part in the attack. In this event, Rear Admiral Virenius' division will doubtless go out and engage the Japanese fleet.

All Russia is anxiously awaiting news from the beleaguered garrison. Public feeling has been aroused to a high tension by the dreadful picture given by Prince Radivil of the sufferings of the Russian army there.

LOOK FOR FILIBUSTERS.

State Department Hears of Scheme to Invade Honduras, and Puts Detectives on Watch.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Secret-service employees are reported to have been watching news for several days past clearing for Honduras and near-by ports for a filibustering expedition suspected of fitting out here. The Department of State has been in communication with Salvador Cordova, the Consul-General of Honduras here, over the matter.

About a month ago New Orleans newspaper advertisements for the expedition attracted the attention of the Consul of Honduras there to the efforts of a lieutenant to raise a company of 400 men. The newspaper stated that the expedition was being formed by an American firm that had interest in Central American ports and to protect the same. It was said that the expedition was to go to a point about three days' distance from New Orleans. Honduras is just that distance.

Detectives were put on the matter, at the request of the Honduras government, and it is said they found that about four hundred men were to be given passage similar to those worn by United States soldiers, with guns and ammunition and that two rapid-fire guns were to be taken along. The expedition was to start from New York and another from Philadelphia. The State Department was notified and the preparation at New Orleans was stopped at once. So far as known no preparations have been made for raising an expedition here.

STATE DEPARTMENT MOVES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Rumors of the formation of a filibustering expedition in the United States, directed against one of their number, has caused agitation among the Central American republics. Honduras and Guatemala are particularly apprehensive and the minister of one and the charge of the other have addressed themselves to the State Department, requesting the government to prevent the formation and departure of a hostile expedition from United States ports.

While the rumors referred to were vague, the State Department, complying with the request, addressed itself to the Treasury Department, and the Department of Justice, requesting an investigation and strict enforcement of laws forbidding the incubation of a hostile expedition in the United States directed against a friendly government of another state.

The representatives of Guatemala and Honduras have been told that if they will cause to be reported promptly to the legal officers of the government any facts in their possession tending to organize a filibustering expedition in accordance with the law, nothing further has been heard of the matter.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Masons from all of the Northern States who have attained the highest rank, the Thirty-third degree, gathered at Masonic Temple today for the ninety-second annual meeting of the Supreme Council, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America. Henry L. Palmer of Milwaukee, Sovereign Grand Commander, presided.

The visitors included the right honorable, the Earl of Euston; Secretary Fitzgerald Maiter; Sir Abram Woodliff; Sir Thomas P. Slips Dorman; Rev. Sir Charles E. L. Wright; Sir Thomas Freese; and Sir Alfred James Thomas, all prominent in British Masonry.

DUTCH INDUSTRIES LANGUISH.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 20.—Queen Wilhelmina reopened the States General today. In the speech from the throne the Queen said the home industries of the Netherlands were not competing satisfactorily with foreign enterprise, and that the finances of Dutch industries and of the Netherlands needed strengthening. The Queen announced also the forthcoming introduction of bills providing for other age pensions and higher education.

ATTACKED BY JEWS.

Unknown Man in Buggy Runs Down Little Chicago Girl, Whereupon Mob Seeks Vengeance.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—An unknown man in a buggy was yesterday attacked by a mob of 500 persons at west Twelfth and Halsted streets after he had run down and painfully injured Molly Nemkowsky, aged 6. Hundreds of Ghetto Jews, celebrating the feast of Yom Kippur, pursued the buggy for blocks and bombarded the driver with bricks and stones till the police, brought by a riot call, fought their way through the crowd with clubs and rescued the driver.

A score of persons were injured in the attack and one man was made insensible by a blow on the head. Four were arrested, charged with disorderly conduct.

WEST IS REPUBLICAN.
CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sentiment of the West is overwhelmingly Republican, according to the preliminary reports from the State polls which have been going on all over the country for a month. This announcement is made today by the managers at National Republican headquarters. Reports also show that the minds of voters are already made up to an unusual degree. Chairman West of the State Committee ascribed this fact not only to lack of live issues in the campaign, but also to the fact that labor unions and similar organizations and free rural mail delivery have done much to educate the people in the last four years.

"Sentiment in favor of President Roosevelt and continuance of Republican policies is evident," said Chairman West today. "The real work of the campaign will come when we get to the point where the vote must be gotten out."

Chairman Hobbs of the State Committee of Kansas reported that half the canvass of that State has been completed, and returns showed that Roosevelt would beat McKinley's majority of 23,000 in 1900.

POLITICAL BRIEFS.

CONCORD (N. H.) Sept. 20.—John McLane of Merrimack, was nominated for Governor by the Republican State convention here today. Candidates for Presidential electors were also chosen. There were no other nominations, as all State officers except Governor are appointive.

REACHING FOR LONELY GIRLS.

Helping Hand for Those in Domestic Service.

Ambitious Effort is to be Organized Today.

Important Work Undertaken by the W.C.T.U.

Today at 2 p.m. in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association will be formally organized the most ambitious effort, perhaps, that has ever been made in Los Angeles to benefit the many hundreds of girls who are engaged in hotels and restaurants and laundries, as well as in private homes or any branch of domestic service.

It will be instituted and ushered in as a new branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Its object is to reach a helping hand to young women of the above-mentioned class, to afford them a place for recreation and improvement and to encourage them by such methods to purity and temperance and Christian living.

Plans are already matured for securing a downtown hall to be used as a library and reading-room during the day and as a place of entertainment for several evenings of each month. The refusal of such a hall in the new Mercantile Place on Broadway between Fifth and Sixth has been obtained for this purpose, and already as many as 150 books of an entertaining and elevating character have been donated as a nucleus for the library.

The ladies who are promoting this enterprise, prominent among whom are Dr. Mary J. Lightner, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Hawkins and Mrs. W. S. Weed, have in mind a librarian who will be in constant attendance in the hall and will be a motherly chaperone and elevating character have been donated as a nucleus for the library.

SMILES FOR THE LONELY. In this library the young woman who in many cases has only a bare little room in some unattractive lodging-house that she calls home, will be allowed to meet her friends, young men as well as women, where they may chat and enjoy themselves in an innocent, harmless manner. Only good literature will be at their disposal, and the surroundings are to be made as happy and unrestrained as is consistent with the purpose of the contemplated union.

As the organization develops there are to be improving lectures arranged for various evenings, as well as musical and social entertainments, and even a night school for those who desire to educate themselves. In fact, the new union seeks to do a Christian work among the class of young women who have not been successfully reached by any other organization. The Young Woman's Christian Temperance Association has held out to them a welcome, but the girls in service complain that they do not feel at home with the "sainted" business women, musicians, artists, etc., of which the Y.W.C.A. is largely composed, and so they drop out gradually and go their lonely way.

HELPING HAND OUT.

Dr. Mary Lightner, who has been a moving power in the promoting of the new union, and who has been a temperance worker since Frances Willard pinned a white ribbon on her at the age of 12, has gradually won a large acquaintance among the girls who serve in restaurants, and her stories of them are touching in the extreme. One tall, handsome girl to whom she gave a friendly greeting fairly wept when spoken to.

"I have been in this place six weeks," said she, "and you are the first woman who has spoken to me. Many of these girls labor all day in restaurants and hotels, and when evening comes there is no place of entertainment but the theaters that seem convenient, then comes the restaurants in turn and wine drinking, and if they are strangers and go not there their escorts will there is a deadly loneliness."

A number of W.C.T.U. women whose hearts were wrung by much they had found out to number of restaurants in the evening and watched these girls as they came in after the theater. "PLEASE DON'T TELL."

"Oh please do not let our parents or friends know that we drink like this," several of them said. "We are away from home and so lonely."

This afternoon at the Y.M.C.A. hall, Mrs. Emma Cash, State president of the W.C.T.U., Mrs. Gabriella Stickney, county president and Mrs. Hester T. Griffith of the City Federation of the Union, will assist in the organizing of the new union.

The hall has already been handsomely decorated, a huge silk American flag being conspicuously draped and small flags of all nations arranged about. A local florist has donated 500 carnations which will be tied into small bunches with a flower mission card on each and given away. Yesterday the hills were scoured for wild sunflowers which form part of the decoration an emblem of the cause of woman's suffrage.

ALL FOR THE GIRLS. The programme will include devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Albert A. Kidder, hotel chaplain of Los Angeles. The acting chairman will be Mr. Fitzgerald, identified with the temperance cause for twenty-eight years, and Mrs. E. W. Weed will act as temporary secretary.

Mrs. Emma Cash will conduct the organization exercises.

Mrs. Lucy S. Blanchard will give an address and pin on the white badge, and Mrs. Lou V. Young will present the State minutes to the new union which will be welcomed into the city federation by Mrs. Griffith. Into the county federation by Mrs. Stickney, and into the State organization by Mrs. Cash. There will be a response by Mrs. Fitzgerald. Mrs. Griffith will set forth the object of the union and Mr. Cleaver of the Y.M.C.A. will respond. Music and a Missopah prayer will close the services.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

Inquiring into the Habits of the Mosquito—Citrus Groves for Experiment.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES)

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 19.—The insinuating mosquito is to be placed again under the glare of the lamp of learning. In order to investigate thoroughly the habits of that insect, which has come to be so serious a bar to the comfort of the inhabitants of certain sections of the State, Prof. Charles W. Woodworth and his class in entomological research have made weekly visits during the term to the breeding places of the insect at Burlingame. A preliminary study of the mosquito migration and habits is being made during the visit with a view to attempting the complete extermination of the pest in the coming spring. Citrus orchards in the vicinity of Riverside to the extent of 100 acres have been loaned to the university for investigation of citrus fruits. This will undoubtedly be but the beginning of an extensive study of orange culture in California by the Agricultural Department.

In five years the number of students at the university has increased nearly one-fourth, according to the latest compilation by the recorder's office. Twenty-four hundred and fifty-five students have registered to date this year, as against 2002 at a similar date in 1900. At the corresponding date of last year the number was 2392. It is expected that further registrations between now and the end of the year will amount to not less than 800, which will make a total for 1904-05 of 2750. Of the students who have registered thus far this year, 846 are newcomers at the university.

GOLD MEDAL STUDENT.

Miss Rose Picher Wins First Honors in the Los Angeles College of Fine Arts.

Miss Rose Picher has been awarded the gold medal for the best record made by a student in the Los Angeles College of Fine Arts during the last school year. Three of the students scored an equal number of points in the contest for the medal, the other two being Edna Blumne and Jessie Jones. As the medal could not be divided between the three of them, it was decided to award it to the one who would draw the best human head in charcoal from life. Of the three finished drawings, the judges decided that Miss Picher's was the best, though the other two were so good as to win for Miss Blumne and Miss Jones meritorious mention. The new school year at the College of Fine Arts at Garvanza has started off with a larger attendance than ever, and everything is moving along smoothly and harmoniously, except for the contest between the college and the gas works in the neighboring arroyo. Prof. Judson, head of the college, is awaiting abatement of the gas and ammeter nuisance before commencing work on a new and larger college building.

BATH FOR ELIJAH.

Dirty Man from Sawtelle Charged With Having Cruelly Beaten His Wife.

The dirtiest man in Sawtelle, according to peace officers, got a soaking good bath yesterday. He is Elijah S. West.

His old wife came to the city and said he had cruelly beaten and abused her, and she got a warrant for his arrest.

Deputy Constable Holman was sent down yesterday morning to Sawtelle to serve it. Mrs. West has left her husband.

ELIJAH S. WEST.

Land's house and is working in a Sawtelle restaurant, so the old man was at home alone.

When the officer rapped at the door he refused to admit him.

"Lige," pleaded the deputy constable, "come out and let's have a drink."

"Wait a minute; I'm comin'," was the instant reply.

When the door was opened a terrible stench was let out. The officer found the old man fairly wallowing in filth.

He had been on a private jamboree all by himself. Every time he had come to the end of a whisky bottle he had blazed away at something in the room, smashing the bottle to splinters.

When they were coming to town the constable found it convenient to sit as remotely from the old man as circumstances would permit. When they got him to the jail the turnkey turned pale and yelled for two trustees, who plunged the old man into a bath.

He was arraigned before Justice Young, who set his bail at $50.

"My old lady," he said, penitently, "she just took a notion and had me arrested for licking her. I never touched her."

THE DOCTOR'S WIFE.

Agrees With Him About Food.

A trained nurse says: "In the practice of my profession I have found so many points in favor of Grape-Nuts food that I unhesitatingly recommend it to all my patients."

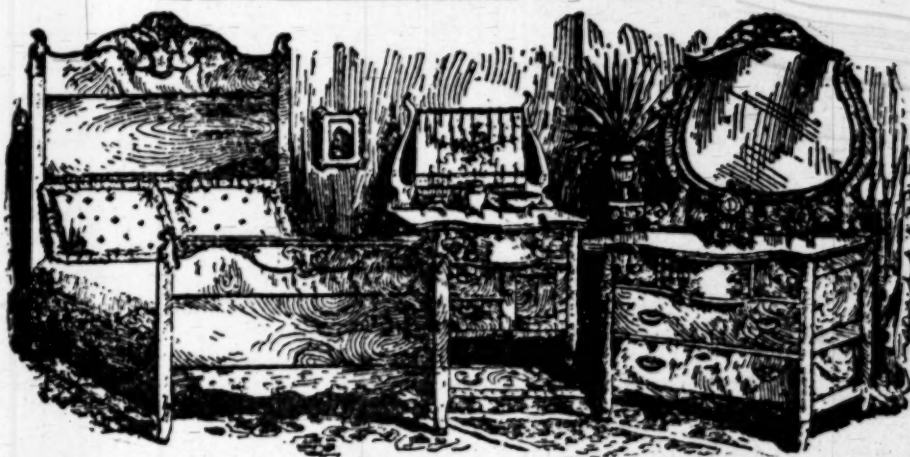

"It is delicate and pleasing to the palate (an essential in food for the sick) and can be adapted to all ages, being softened with milk or cream for babies or the aged when delicacy of teeth renders mastication impossible. For fever patients or those on liquid diet I find Grape-Nuts and albumen water very nourishing and refreshing." This recipe is my own idea and is made as follows: Soak a teaspoonful of Grape-Nuts in a glass of water for an hour, strain and serve with the beaten white of an egg and a spoonful of fruit juice for flavoring. This food is a great deal of nourishment that even the weakest stomach can assimilate without any distress.

"My husband is a physician and he uses Grape-Nuts himself and orders it in many times for his patients. Personally I regard a dish of Grape-Nuts with fresh or stewed fruit as the ideal breakfast for anyone—well or sick." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

In any case of stomach trouble, nervous prostration or brain fog, a 10 day's trial of Grape-Nuts will work wonders toward nourishing and rebuilding, and in this way ending the trouble. "There's a reason" and trial proves.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Died of His Injuries.

Alexander Holt, who fell down stairs at the Palace Market on Monday afternoon, died of his injuries. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death in the manner indicated.

New Business Block.

The excavation for the foundation of a five-story brick business block to be built for Gus Brenner, on the west side of Main street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, after plans of Architect Edward Neisser, is in progress.

Credit Men.

The Los Angeles Credit Men's Association is preparing to have its opening spread of the season at Levy's Thursday evening. Secretary W. C. Musket will give an account of the annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men held in New York City in June.

Child Study Circle.

The West Coast Child Study Circle will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Washington-street school. The program will include music by Miss Lundy, a vocal solo by Mrs. Coon and an original story, "Mrs. Flits in the School of I. Pot and T. Pan," by Mrs. Bober. Important business will be considered.

Candidates for Stage.

A "try-out" of applicants for positions in the production of "The Taming of Shrew" at the Burbank Theater will take place at that theater at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. The management reports twenty-five applicants. Yesterday by young woman with a hankering to appear before the footlights.

"Raffles."

Kyrle Bellow, in his dramatic study in criminology, "Raffles: The Amateur Cracksman," which will be presented at the Mason Theater tonight for the first time, is said to have the support of a strong cast of prominence next to Bellow is E. M. Holland, himself a star. Holland played his part of Capt. Bedford, the detective, during the 200 nights run of "Raffles" in New York last season.

A Missouri Apple.

Henry Hatch of No. 557 South Hope street was yesterday exhibiting to his friends an apple from the orchard of his son-in-law, A. J. Green, of Monroe City, Mo., which weighed 194 ounces. Mr. Hatch, who weighed 194 ounces, said he was going to present the apple to the Chamber of Commerce for exhibition. He says prospects are bright for Missouri going Republican in the majority this fall, and that a State which can raise such apples has no business in the Democratic column.

Description Too Accurate.

Charles Rand, a laborer who rooms at the Terre Haute house on East First street, reported to the police last night that he had been held up and robbed near the corner of East First and Central streets. Rand says he was home alone, and when two men approached and ordered him to throw up his hands. He did so and the highwayman relieved him of $25. Although showing the effects of too much liquor, Rand gave an accurate description of his assailants. In fact, his description was so minute, even to the vest worn by the proverbial "short man," that the police are inclined to doubt his story.

Noted Church Workers Coming.

The congregationalists of Los Angeles are anticipating an interesting series of meetings this fall under the leadership of Rev. H. W. Pope of the Northfield Institute, and Rev. William Newton, a noted singer of the East. Accompanied by Mrs. Pope, they will arrive Saturday, and the first series of meetings will begin at the First Baptist Congregational Church, El Molino, and Twelfth streets, beginning Sunday morning. These workers will conduct meetings in Southern California for the ensuing six months under the direction of the Congregational General Association. They will attend a session of this association, which will meet at Pomona October 10-12, and will then resume meetings in Los Angeles. Dr. Pope has been the assistant of Dr. Campbell Morgan in the Northfield meetings.

MILLINERY AND BIBLE LEAD.

BIG ENROLLMENTS IN Y.W.C.A. CLASSES LAST NIGHT.

Pretty Bachelor Maids Protest Against Having Only Chafing Dish Instruction and Want to Learn "Whole Thing" in Cookery so as to be Ready for Wedding Day.

The members of the Educational Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association, were beaming with smiles of welcome last evening as a host of pupils and friends were greeted at one of the annual events the educational rally, where the fine prospects for the year were rejoiced over and a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

Every branch of work that the association teaches was well represented, and the large hall was filled to overflowing with white-gowned girls and bright-faced women, while flowers nodded their approval from many tall vases and brand new posters looked down from the walls.

Mrs. Frank A. Dewey, president, offered an invocation, and introduced Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, who spoke on "What Does It Cost? and Is It Worth While?"

Taking a familiar instance of the questions asked by women who were recorded as going to the Y. W. C. A. applied the same pertinent questions to educational values.

Miss Julie Kie Christian and Mrs. Deuther presented vocal selections, and after the brief programme there ensued the happy clamor of tongues and much social chat.

The Educational Committee is composed of Mrs. W. J. Washburn, Mrs. D. M. Welch, Mrs. William Horace Day, Mrs. Dwight R. Brown, Miss Frances Clarke, Dr. Rose T. Bullard, Miss Rose Smith and Mrs. O. C. Bryant.

The educational department had numerous reasons for its congratulatory mood, for although classes will not open until next week, there has been the largest enrollment thus far ever recorded in the history of the Y. W. C. A. and all the courteous young women who have acquired a perfect genius in answering questions, have been taxed to the utmost during the past week in attending to the stream of young women that has poured into the association room.

Inquiries as to various courses of study.

Thus far, millinery and Rev. William Horace Day's Bible class for the study of Revelations are the leaders in popularity. Millinery assumed large proportions last year, and only the study of the Bible seems superior in importance to the making of feminine household goods. Sunday-school teachers and others interested in Bible work are entering the normal training in Bible study to be led by W. C. Weid.

An intensely interesting and friendly rivalry between members of the various physical culture classes of last year is resulting in the rapid swelling of the ranks for the new season. Many are working to gain free tuition for themselves by bringing three new members, and not a few generous-hearted girls are earning tuition for friends in the same manner. Miss Beryman has some new and interesting features of work, and some brand-new apparatus.

The association feels that the Y. W. C. A. is being formed for the making of dainty lingerie, while darning, patching, and mending are not neglected. The association feels that the music department deserves now the dignified title of "conservatory." One new class which is organized to meet an urgent demand, is one which has to do with the correct use of English, which will be conducted by Mrs. Dwight Rittenhouse Brown.

"Books and their makers" is also a new department under Mrs. Emma Greenleaf, and another new branch to be included is a Browning class.

For the benefit of girls in domestic service there will be afternoon class every Thursday for supplementary educational work, also two evenings in each week. The regular work in free-hand drawing, in painting, in elocution and in stenography, will be continued as usual. Mrs. Lou V. Chapin will conduct the current history studies.

DANGEROUS THIEVES.

Gang of Professional Porch Climbers Again at Work in the Westlake District.

Porch climbers—the genuine kind—have reappeared in Los Angeles. Most of them are professional thieves, police and public dread their advent in a community, and when a case was reported at police headquarters last night, where the work of professionals was evident, several of the best men on the detective force were detailed on the case, and extra precautions will be taken to capture the culprit.

Louis Melzer of the firm of Lazarus & Melzer, stationary, of No. 1215 Lake street, is the porch climber's victim. About 6:30 o'clock last evening the thieves scaled the columns in front of the Melzer home, and gained a second-story balcony, where they used nippers to enter door. One bedroom was furiously searched, and another was entered, but the thieves evidently became frightened and left before anything of great value could be secured.

Two men who were seen by Melzer in the neighborhood are suspected of the job, but only a meager description of them could be given. The police think, from the appearance of the thieves' work, that a gang of professional porch climbers has selected this city for their operations.

WIDOW GETS EASY MONEY.

Rank Impostor "Working" the Charitable People.

Mrs. Estelle, Under Another Name, Still Begs.

Many Donations on Strength of False Tale.

Where is the marble-hearted, unscrupulous woman who would willingly withhold a paltry donation of $1.50 to a lone, lorn widow, when that small amount would complete the amount required to give the widow a berth in that happy haven for the aged, Hollenbeck Home?

Surely Los Angeles doesn't have such women, and this can be proved by the contents of the large, fat purse which Widow Wallace, or Estelle, as she sometimes calls herself, is juggling around as a result of her skillful work at getting "easy money" among the fashionable homes of the Westlake district and the Southwest.

It's the old story of the brazen impostor preying on the feelings and purses of the charitably inclined. Although this woman was exposed in the columns of The Times several months ago, she simply changed her location, revised her mode of operation, and proceeded with her game of "working" good people, finding even a richer field than that in which she formerly operated.

Mrs. Wallace, who has been making a house-to-house canvass in the Westlake district, is a pitiful-looking, thin little woman, wearing rusty black, and proclaiming herself a widow with no resources. Think of that—no resources! Why, her ability to raise money would be the envy of a church-fair director.

Along fashionable Burlington avenue, this woman has been playing her trickery, telling her story that she has an application on file at the Hollenbeck Home, which has been given favorable consideration, and that she is waiting for the very next vacancy. And all she lacks to complete the deposit is a measly $1.50. Would a lady who has the honor to live in such a beautiful home as that, and the caller indicates that she is waiting for a vacancy, call by a wave of her hand—allow a widow's plans to be frustrated by refusing such a small contribution?

USUALLY DONATE. This usually has the desired effect, and in numerous cases the importuned householder makes the donation an even $1, or sometimes more, so the little widow shall have a few dollars for her own when she gets settled in the Hollenbeck Home.

Then the widow, after profuse thanks, hesitatingly asks the woman of the house whether she hasn't some pretty good old clothing that she could donate so as to fit her new wardrobe. This generally brings forth a supply that is said to find its way to some second-hand store as soon as it can be broken up.

It is known that this Mrs. Wallace has been making a systematic haul in the Westlake district, and is interesting to the many contributors to learn that their sympathy, cash and old clothing have been misplaced.

The matron of the Hollenbeck Home says that so far as they know this woman has never been there, nor has she any application on file. Her case has never been before them for consideration. There are now over 100 donations applications on file, and there is not the remotest chance of the Wallace woman being taken in, even if she should make the required deposit.

THAT BAGGAGE GAME. Several months ago Mrs. Wallace, or as she was then known, Mrs. Estelle, was working a similar rank imposture among the business houses of this city, claiming that she lacked only a few dollars of having enough to pay for her baggage, which was held at the Natick Hotel for board bill. She made a good living at this until exposed by The Times, when she changed her place of residence and proceeded to the suburban districts with her new tale, concocted for the purpose of bringing forth money from the liberal-hearted.

This woman was a boarder at the Natick. She remained there until she ran up a large bill, and sought other quarters when urged to settle. The effects left in her room at the Natick were long lists of names, evidently signatures to subscription lists with which she had "worked" other cities. Some of the names were those of well-known New Orleans business firms. The amounts opposite the names had been carefully clipped off, and the woman apparently had intended to go back over the grounds already worked some future day, and had kept these lists of names as a reference to the "good thing" firms of various Southern cities. She has been heard from in other places.

THREE IN A BUNCH. The prisoner achieved notoriety through a burglary of February wherein a New High-street residence was looted of $80, and several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry. He was arrested at Los Angeles, and was in the company of Margie Reed, a handsome young woman of the half world, and what appeared to be conclusive evidence against him was gathered.

When the case came up for trial, however, the Reed girl pleaded guilty, and swore that Weyant was in no way connected with the crime. The girl simply swore away her liberty to save her companion. She is now in the custody of the police.

Weyant was convicted of carrying concealed weapons and sentenced to jail for 100 days, but the burglary charge could not be made to stick.

AUSTRIAN NAVAL LEAGUE. VIENNA, Sept. 20.—The Austrian naval league, modeled after the German one, was organized here today. It is supported by Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the Austrian Minister and other influential persons.

RUN DOWN ON STREET.

Reckless Driver Arrested and an Injured Boy Taken to the County Hospital.

There was indignation on Spring street yesterday afternoon when Farice Armstrong, a boy 15 years of age, was run down by a horse and buggy driven by Dave Liddell.

Liddell was driving recklessly up Spring street, having in the buggy as a guest D. S. Rankin. Young Armstrong was walking across the street and the pace of the horse made it impossible for him to escape. Liddell refused to stop and whipped up his horse, followed by a large crowd who had witnessed the accident. He was headed off by a man on horseback and Officer Burch arrested him at the corner of Third and Spring streets. A large number of witnesses gave their names to the officer and signed their willingness to appear as witnesses in the Police Court today.

Young Armstrong has been employed at the store of the Angelina Woolen Company, having quit his place on Monday, and the horse run over was on his way to the store to turn in his coat and cap and get his pay for last week's work. The buggy ran over his leg and he was injured.

An examination at the Receiving Hospital failed to show any other serious injury, but the doctor is juggling around as a result of her skillful work at getting "easy money" among the fashionable homes of the Westlake district and the Southwest.

ENVELOPED IN BLAZE OF OIL.

TWO MEN PAINTFULLY INJURED AT BREWERY FURNACE.

Burning Oil Suddenly Spouts from Under Boilers, and Engineer With Bunch of Waste and Presence of Mind Rushes to the Rescue and Saves Their Lives.

Frank Rademacher, chief engineer of the Maler & Zobein brewery, and Joseph Costello, an engineer's helper, narrowly escaped a horrible death in the engine-room of the brewery on Commercial street yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. As a result of the accident sustained each of these men is severely burned about the face, chest and arms, but the physicians in attendance express the belief that both will recover.

The accident was caused by burning oil flaring out of the furnace under a set of new boilers which were being tested, and enveloping the two men, who were directly in front of the furnace door. The men were at the time engaged in watching the progress of the tests. That both men are not dead is doubtless due to the prompt action of Engineer J. F. Harrison, who rushed to their aid with a large armful of "waste," shreds of cotton which are used for the wiping and packing of machinery, and with this smothering the fire and sweeping away the burning oil.

The men were at once carried to the office of the brewery, and there Dr. Cole dressed the burns. Later they were taken to the hospital, where they were resting easily, and there is good reason to believe they will recover.

Mr. Rademacher is a married man, and lives at No. 814 Ermon avenue. He has long been connected with the Maler & Zobein brewery and is also one of the stockholders in the concern. His heart out for the sight of "Rob's" face.

Smith lived with his mother at No. 1238 South Los Angeles street, and is said to have borne a first-class reputation. On July 23 he dropped out of sight, and no clew of his whereabouts has been found. His mother is grieving her heart out for the sight of "Rob's" face.

THE KRATZ CASE. MOST MYSTERIOUS OF ALL. The disappearance of Albert C. Kratz, did he, on the night of Thursday, September 15, commit suicide in the sea at Long Beach? Or was he murdered? Or was he taken away by some one? Or was he taken away by some one? Or was he taken away by some one?

Young Man With a Police Record Charged With the Robbery of Hope-street Residence. Grover Weyant, who has long been known to the police as a "smooth" young man, is in the City Jail on a charge of burglary. He has escaped conviction for other alleged crimes, but the officers say they now have a "cinch" case against him.

Weyant was arrested yesterday by Detectives Hawley and Murphy, who have been on the man's trail for a long time. He is charged with having burglarized the residence of R. G. Tobey, No. 54 South Hope street, September 15, and with carrying a concealed weapon. He was located yesterday and the detective who Weyant has confessed his guilt.

The prisoner achieved notoriety through a burglary of February wherein a New High-street residence was looted of $80, and several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry. He was arrested at Los Angeles, and was in the company of Margie Reed, a handsome young woman of the half world, and what appeared to be conclusive evidence against him was gathered.

When the case came up for trial, however, the Reed girl pleaded guilty, and swore that Weyant was in no way connected with the crime. The girl simply swore away her liberty to save her companion. She is now in the custody of the police.

Weyant was convicted of carrying concealed weapons and sentenced to jail for 100 days, but the burglary charge could not be made to stick.

Hardest Puzzle of All is the Kratz Case.

The Jail and the Sea for President's Sons.

One "mysterious disappearance" a day is the known record for the city of Los Angeles for the first twenty days of September. That is, twenty "missing" reports have been turned in to the police since August 31. In only three cases has the cause of worry returned either voluntarily or with coercion.

Into some of these disappearances the element of tragedy, such as the case of the Kratz family, the breaking of women's hearts, the deserting of wives and children, the forsaking of mothers; and in at least three cases, the commission of a serious crime seem to be involved. Others among the score are scheduled as mere childish runaways. Here is a partial list:

August 25—Pan Foulkes, boy, aged 11, disappeared from home, No. 1235 Channing street. No trace yet found.

September 1—Sindo Correa, boy, aged 12, disappeared from home, No. 263 North Avenue 22. No trace.

September 5—Gould Spangler, girl, aged 15, disappeared from home, No. 825 East Washington street, was followed by her father, and caught by him and others in Yuma September 11.

September 6—Harold Trombly, or Harold Meister, boy, aged 7 years and six months, disappeared from home, No. 1231 East First street. No trace.

September 8—A. C. Ayres, aged 27, clerk of the Nany Broadway Hotel, disappeared between 6 and 7 o'clock in the morning, after kissing his young wife goodby and starting for work from his room at the Hotel. He was reported to have been seen in Arizona.

September 11—Elizabeth Davis, "hel-lo" girl, aged 18, disappeared between 10 and 11 o'clock in the morning, while ostensibly on her way to the telephone central from her home, No. 323 Judson street. She was last seen with W. Augustus Wolfe. No trace.

September 11—W. Augustus Wolfe, aged 28, construction foreman in the employ of Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company, disappeared from his lodgings at No. 449 St. Louis street, wife and infant child, and no one knew it better than himself.

The story of the embezzlement charge is told in the Kratz case. It is given as it came from the lips of the missing man's father, who quotes his two sons, Albert and William (the latter is now residing in Los Angeles), as having been in the office of the missing man's father, who quotes his two sons, Albert and William (the latter is now residing in Los Angeles), as having been in the office of the missing man's father.

September 12—Reba Steiner, girl, aged 15, disappeared from home in South Pasadena. Found in Los Angeles September 13.

September 13—Guy Segall, boy, aged 12, disappeared from home, No. 714 Coast Street. No trace.

September 14—Edward Long, aged 25, butcher, disappeared from Grand Central street, and was reported to have been seen in the theater, lived at the corner of Fifth and Olive streets. No trace.

Albert A. Kratz, aged 32, son of Valentine Kratz, president of the Atlas Milling Company, disappeared about 9 o'clock in the evening from his beach house at Long Beach. After donning a bathing suit ostensibly for a plunge in the surf, he was never seen again.

September 19 in the Superior Court in San Francisco to answer a charge of felony embezzlement of $10,000. No trace.

September 16—Harold Carlson, boy, aged 12, disappeared from home, No. 649 E. Park road. Found in San Diego September 20.

September 17—Ernest Apperson, boy, aged 13, disappeared from home, No. 775 Merchant street. No trace.

WHERE IS SMITH? A "hold-over disappearance" from last July also is puzzling the police, who last night sent out to the chiefs of police of other cities a large number of circulars describing one Robert W. Smith, an electrician, aged 24 years.

Smith lived with his mother at No. 1238 South Los Angeles street, and is said to have borne a first-class reputation. On July 23 he dropped out of sight, and no clew of his whereabouts has been found. His mother is grieving her heart out for the sight of "Rob's" face.

THE KRATZ CASE. MOST MYSTERIOUS OF ALL. The disappearance of Albert C. Kratz, did he, on the night of Thursday, September 15, commit suicide in the sea at Long Beach? Or was he murdered? Or was he taken away by some one? Or was he taken away by some one? Or was he taken away by some one?

Young Man With a Police Record Charged With the Robbery of Hope-street Residence. Grover Weyant, who has long been known to the police as a "smooth" young man, is in the City Jail on a charge of burglary. He has escaped conviction for other alleged crimes, but the officers say they now have a "cinch" case against him.

Weyant was arrested yesterday by Detectives Hawley and Murphy, who have been on the man's trail for a long time. He is charged with having burglarized the residence of R. G. Tobey, No. 54 South Hope street, September 15, and with carrying a concealed weapon. He was located yesterday and the detective who Weyant has confessed his guilt.

The prisoner achieved notoriety through a burglary of February wherein a New High-street residence was looted of $80, and several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry. He was arrested at Los Angeles, and was in the company of Margie Reed, a handsome young woman of the half world, and what appeared to be conclusive evidence against him was gathered.

LEPERS HERE ALL ESCAPE.

Gone from County Hospital and Scattered.

Peril to the Community is a Question.

Romantic Story Behind One Poor Sufferer.

The tents of the lepers at the County Hospital are all empty now. The last one has escaped in the night.

Two women, a hideous disease-eaten wreck that once was a Chinaman, and the old railroad contractor, Mason, all of whom belong to the leper tents of the County Hospital are now missing. Not a word or a clew, did any of them leave behind.

The thought of their being some where at large is not comforting. The last to escape was the pathetic Mexican woman, Mrs. Chamberlain, who, when released, was in a horrible state. She lived there eight months in awful solitude in a tent under the hill upon which the County Hospital is located.

When they went to look for her in her tent, they found it empty.

ROMANTIC DEVOTION. Back of her disappearance is a story of a rare and romantic devotion. It is said that her husband has spirited her away from her tent prison and has gone back to live with her again, leper and all.

He is a handsome young fellow of excellent address and good manners. He has seemed all along to be perfectly devoted to the woman. Although they lived together during all the years that she was in the hospital, she showed no signs of disease, but the cure came over with frightful rapidity.

She became a figure of pathetic and melancholy interest at the hospital. Late in the day she used to be seen standing outside her tent watching the sun setting after her lonely meal, waiting for the lonely night, after which would come another lonely day. For all these months she endured the imprisonment from a sense of duty. She told the young doctors she realized that it was her duty to stay. Once she said, however, that she would kill herself were it not for a promise made to her father when he was on his death bed.

At the time went by, the doctors believe her husband decided that he would rather run any risk than live without her, and coaxed her away. At any rate, she vanished.

THE PERIL OF IT. As to the peril that her husband runs and as to the peril there is in having the leper shown in the land, the fact is, doctors, even the best of them, have no very great knowledge of the extent of the contagion of leprosy.

Before the Board of Supervisors not long ago, Dr. J. Le Moine Willis stated his opinion that the disease is not so contagious as the doctors said. No blame is attached by anyone to the hospital authorities for this statement. Unless guards are stationed at the tents day and night there is no way to keep them under surveillance. There are but one door by which to draw for such guards.

The old contractor never actually did go to the hospital.

He was confined in his own home while the "cultures" taken from him were examined. The day before he was released, he was taken to his family and gone into the leper tents for the rest of his life, he, too, was spirited away.

Like a Mexican woman, the old contractor at first seemed resigned to his dreadful fate, saying that he realized that he could not do anything to mingle with other people. When it came to actually passing out of life, as it was his last day, he was a different man.

No one knows where he is. The Chinaman, the worst case, is said by the hospital employees to have also slipped out.

Several lepers are at large somewhere in this vicinity.

BANK FOR FOREIGNERS. Institution to Serve Southern California People of Many Languages in Financial Business.

The International Savings and Exchange Bank, recently organized in this city, opened its doors for business yesterday morning at No. 228 North Spring street, and a very satisfactory amount of business is recorded for the first day. This bank was formed to transact business with the large number of foreign-speaking people in Southern California, and with a few exceptions the stockholders of the corporation are American citizens of foreign birth. They are representative men of the various colonies in Southern California, including the French, Italian, Slavonian, German, and others.

John Loplich, the president, speaks fluently seven languages, and Jules Kaufman, the vice-president, speaks four. Charles Ewing, the cashier, is the only officer not of foreign birth. He has had many years' banking experience in Chicago. The vice-presidents are Jules Kaufman, A. Fuenot, Leon Escalier and Morris Orsatti; directors, Dr. B. Sussella, M. Durand, John Casters, E. Fleur, S. Bodrero, M. Kristovich, Jules Vior, L. Sentous, Sr., B. Castruccio and Charles Carpy.

BUSINESS.

The Chicago wheat pit had a bullish tone most of the day, and December closed at 109 1/2 and May at 111 1/2-20 1/2. A scare at New York over the country's corn crop affected the railroad list, and a cut in steel had some effect on other lines, causing an abandonment of the high-price level which had been reached.

OLD-AGE PENSIONS.

The Democratic managers have opened their "personal campaign" against the President. Report No. 1 of the "Parker Constitution Club of New York City" attempts to support the charge that the executive order recently issued by Pension Commissioner Ware is unconstitutional. The report is put forth as "the first of a series" dwelling on specific acts of President Roosevelt, one of which is the growing accusation against him of unconstitutional conduct. The order in question, which was issued on March 15 of the current year, was as follows:

Department of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions, March 15, 1934.
Order No. 78.

Whereas, the act of June 27, 1890, as amended, provides that a claimant shall be entitled to receive a pension not exceeding twelve dollars per month and not less than six dollars per month, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support, and in determining such disability and every infirmity shall be considered, and the aggregate of the disabilities shown be rated; and

Whereas, old age is an infirmity, the average nature and extent of which the experience of the Pension Bureau has established with reasonable certainty; and

Whereas, by act of Congress in 1887, when thirty-nine years had elapsed after the Mexican War, all soldiers of said war who were over sixty-two years of age were placed on the pension roll; and

Whereas, thirty-nine years will have elapsed on April 13, 1934, since the Civil War, and there are many survivors over sixty-two years of age;

Now, therefore, ordered:

(1.) In the adjudication of pension claims under said act of June 27, 1890, as amended, it shall be taken and considered as an evidential fact, if the contrary does not appear, and if all other legal requirements are properly met, that when a claimant has passed the age of sixty-two years he is disabled one-half in ability to perform manual labor, and is entitled to be rated at six dollars per month; after sixty-five years at eight dollars per month; after sixty-eight years at ten dollars per month; and after seventy years at twelve dollars per month.

(2.) Allowances at higher rates, not exceeding twelve dollars per month, will continue to be made as heretofore, where disabilities other than age show a condition of inability to perform manual labor.

(3.) This order shall take effect April 13, 1934, and shall not be deemed retroactive. The former rules of the office, fixing the minimum and maximum at sixty-five and seventy-five years, respectively, are hereby modified as above.

E. F. WARE,

Commissioner of Pensions.

Approved: E. A. HITCHCOCK,

Secretary.

This is the order which the President's critics declare to be unconstitutional, and contrary to the laws enacted by Congress. The Constitution requires (Article II, Section 3), that the President "shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed." The United States statute under which the President's pension order was issued (the act of June 27, 1890, as amended), makes the following provision:

"Sec. 2. That all persons who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the late War of the Rebellion, and who have been honorably discharged therefrom, and who are now or may hereafter be suffering from any mental or physical disability or disabilities of a permanent character, not the result of their own vicious habits, which so incapacitates them for the performance of manual labor as to render them unable to earn a support, shall, upon making due proof of the fact, according to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the list of invalid pensioners of the United States, and be entitled to receive a pension not exceeding twelve dollars per month and not less than six dollars per month, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support; and in determining such disability, each and every infirmity shall be duly considered, and the aggregate of the disabilities shown be rated, and such pension shall commence from the date of the filing of the application in the Bureau of Pensions, after the passage of this act, upon proof that the disability or disabilities then existed, and shall continue during the existence of the same."

On January 29, 1887, Congress had enacted a similar law relating to pensioners of the Mexican War, and providing in effect that every officer and enlisted man of that war should be entitled to a pension after having arrived at the age of sixty-two years.

This law was enacted thirty-nine years after the close of the Mexican War. President Roosevelt's order, above quoted, went into effect thirty-nine years after the close of the Civil War. If it was desirable and right to place the veterans of the Mexican War upon the pension rolls at the age of sixty-two, regardless of other infirmities than those due to old age, how could it be regarded as undesirable and wrong to place the veterans of the Civil War upon a like basis?

But we are told in Report No. 1 of the "Parker Constitution Club of New York City" that the President violated the law above quoted as well as the Constitution in issuing the pension order under discussion. A careful reading of the section quoted, which is the vital portion, will not bear out this assertion. The law provides that every claimant shall be entitled to receive a pension of from six to twelve dollars per month, "proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support, and in determining such disability and every infirmity shall be considered, and the aggregate of the disabilities shown be rated." As Commissioner Ware well says, "old age is an infirmity, the average nature and extent of which the Pension Bureau has established with reasonable certainty."

Unquestionably, in considering the aggregate of infirmities, the infirmities due to increasing years ought not to be eliminated.

It is contended by the "Parker Constitution Club of New York City" that "at sixty-two a man may be, and usually is, able to perform manual labor; at seventy-five he is not." Both statements need qualification. A man at sixty-two is able to perform manual labor, but he is not able to perform as much manual labor as he is at twenty-five or thirty. A man at seventy-five is not, in normal cases, entirely unable to perform manual labor; but his disability is such that it could not be expected of him to perform at least $12 per month if he has given the best years of his life to the service of his country. These facts were fully recognized in the President's order, to which our esteemed opponents take exception. "When a claimant has passed the age of sixty-two years, he is disabled one-half in ability to perform manual labor, and is entitled to be rated at six dollars per month; after sixty-five years at eight dollars per month; after sixty-eight years at ten dollars per month; and after seventy years at twelve dollars per month."

From the foregoing it appears that the President has violated neither the Constitution nor the statutes in the pension order of March 15, 1934, and that the order placed on a fair and reasonable construction upon the law of June 27, 1890, upon which it was based. The attempt of his would-be critics to show that he has been guilty of such violation is a miserable failure, and it is based upon the merest quibble. The law clearly authorized the action taken, and public opinion will heartily approve it.

Another Democratic wall is heard in the land because of the cost which the order will entail. The Commissioner of Pensions estimates this increased cost to the government at $5,400,000 per annum. The "Parker Constitution Club of New York City" estimates it at $15,000,000 per annum. The chances are as 99 to 1 that the Commissioner's estimate of $5,400,000 is not far from the actual figures in his estimate, for he is accustomed to the making of such estimates, and he has a good basis upon which to make them, while the Parker Club has no other basis than that of partisan prejudice and malevolence. But it is of little consequence whether the figures be $5,000,000 or $15,000,000. The United States is able to pay its heroes of the great war such pensions as they are fairly entitled to, to make their old age as comfortable as possible, and the people will see that they are thus paid.

In his letter of acceptance the President places his critics on this subject in a rather embarrassing dilemma, and sardonically asks them which horn of it they are prepared to accept. "It is easy," says the President, "to test our opponents' sincerity in this matter. The order in question is revocable at the pleasure of the Executive. If our opponents come into power, they can revoke this order and announce that they will treat the veterans of sixty-two to seventy as presumably in full bodily vigor and not entitled to pensions. Will they now authoritatively state that they intend to do this? If so, we accept the issue. If not, then we have the right to ask why they raise an issue which, when raised, they do not venture to meet?"

Up to the hour of going to press with this issue of The Times, the President's pertinent and rather pointed questions remain unanswered.

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

When Col. John Sobieski returns to Los Angeles he will doubtless find himself called upon to offer some explanations. The doughty Prohibition orator has been in Portland, Or., lately, and in one of his speeches there he is quoted by the Oregonian as making the following startling statement to the Portlanders:

"Your city is not considered exactly salubrious, but your clergy and citizens are allowed more liberty in expressing their opinions in the churches than they are in my town of Los Angeles, where every one is an angel. There we are always taken aside by the clergymen and told that we are not to speak of the platform and given certain pointers as to what to say or what not to say."

Now here is something that might well take one's breath away. Col. John Sobieski is a prominent man in this town, he bears a King's name and the nature of his work is such as to have kept him in close touch with churches and churchmen. He ought to know his ground when he speaks of almost anything concerning Los Angeles. But, does he? And if he does, is what he says true? If it is not true, why did he say it? And if it is true, why should it be true? Why should clergymen and citizens be muzzled in Los Angeles more than in Portland or anywhere else? By the great horn spoon, it sets the blood boiling in an Angeleno's veins to have flung in his teeth such an accusation as Sobieski makes, though he be the descendant of a hundred kings.

If this silver-tongued orator had charged that newspapers here were also in the category of muzzled clergymen and citizens, and especially if this particular newspaper were so classed, we would endeavor, in our humble way, to take a fall out of the colonel. But he does not include the press in his statements, sweeping though they are. Therefore, it is a matter entirely for the clergy and citizens to consider and they should be heard from on the subject. Col. Sobieski should be called upon to particularize. Who are these clergymen and citizens who are not allowed "full liberty in expressing their opinions"? And who is it that "takes them aside and gives them certain pointers" before they go upon the platform to speak? Let Sobieski name these people serially. It won't do for him to generalize so loosely. He must get down to details, for it is a very serious thing, indeed.

Col. Sobieski is a temperance orator—a drier-in-the-wool Prohibitionist—therefore it must be taken for granted that he was in his sober senses when he delivered this speech in Portland. He cannot be excused on the ground that he was not responsible for what he said. This consideration makes matters all the worse, and the more thoughtful one gives it, the more it appears certain that we have been placed in a very bad light before the people of Oregon. In fact, it hurts us unusually because never before was an Angeleno known to speak ill of his city and her people in the land of the stranger. Stand up, Col. Sobieski, and explain!

It is hardly possible that the recall of Gen. Haraguchi had any connection whatever with the hoodlums' bustle, and yet one can never tell what is at the bottom of these things.

It is officially stated that the recall of Gen. Haraguchi from command in Korea was not in any way suggested by late incidents in the Sixth Ward of Los Angeles.

But his colleagues in the Council will have no trouble in getting the new member's name right. If they should inadvertently call him "Howton," or "Arthur," or "Prof," or "Domine," or "Doc," it will be all the same—he'll be able to answer to any or all of them. But the other members of the Council are cautioned to never attend Council meetings in anything but hypnosis-proof clothes.

Capt. Ryan of the Canadian permanent forces who recently arrived from Japan, makes the following statement, which is of such current interest as to be worth quoting: "The report circulated by the Japanese War Office that the unexpected stubbornness of the Russians in the recent fighting is due to the improvement in rifle shooting and steadiness in the troops, is false, as the Japanese are well aware of the fact that they are now confronted with regiments straight from Europe, and not undisciplined raw levies of Siberian peasants hastily hurried to the seat of war."

Thomas H. Tibbles has also broken loose. Tibbles is a candidate for Vice-President of the United States on the Whiskers ticket. He has written a letter of acceptance, and it's a rainbow with all the seven prismatic colors glowing in it at their full radiance. "The Populists have conspired to restore to Southern California citrus-growers the right to route their own fruits, set up the fancy defense that their disbursement was to prevent carline agents from stealing rebates out of the pockets of the growers, received a 'settling' at the hands of Judge Wellborn in the United States Circuit Court yesterday."

RAILROADS ARE ENJOINED FROM FURTHER DISOBEDIENCE.

May no Longer Defy Interstate Commerce Commission by Defaulting Citrus-growers of the Routing Privilege—Stay is Granted Pending Appeal.

HONEST VOTE ALONE GOES.

You Cannot Fool Machines Expected Today.

Mechanical Ballot Casters in Next Election.

Only Largest City Precincts to be Supplied.

The voting machines to be used here in Los Angeles elections are expected today. The County Clerk has been supplied with the machines.

They will be used for the first time in the November general elections. There will not be enough to be used in every precinct in the city—only the largest precincts.

There are thirteen of the kind manufactured by the U. S. Standard Voting Machine Company, and three made by the Columbia Voting Machine Company.

They cost $250 each. Six are paid for by the city; six and a half by the county, one half of one by the city of Whittier.

Come to the County, $1225; city, $3900; Whittier, $250.

These three Columbia machines cost about the same.

As to the precincts in which the machines will be located, these will be selected by the Supervisors, who also constitute the official board of elections.

Whether they prove practicable in the working or not, the machines are perfect marvels of mechanical ingenuity.

They are self-counting. They will do away with the necessity of weary, long election officials counting votes.

Down on election day on through the hours until dawn, as happened at the last county election. The machine the last vote is cast, the total result appears on the counter at the back of the machine.

There will be no more spoiled ballots drawn out, oftentimes to the defeat of the candidates who actually received the most votes. You can't make an honest mistake with this machine, as you can with the Australian ballot.

The machine refuses to do it. At present many stupid voters get into the booth and puzzle and tear their hair over the simple ballot system in use, and at last cast their ballot perfectly blank, rather than admit that they do not comprehend the paper ballots.

With these machines, once you get inside the booth, an automatic device locks you in, and you can't possibly get out until you have voted.

The voting is done by pulling down a little handle underneath, the name of each person for whom you wish to vote. You may throw across the lever marked "Straight" Republican (or Democratic).

At the top of the machine is an ingenious little trick where you may write the name of any outside person for whom you may wish to vote.

Should you try any funny business in the way of attempting to vote for any person more than once, you will be embarrassed to find the machine more exact than yourself. It sticks and you can't pull down the lever.

Sometimes, on the Australian ballot, eight minds have been known to try to vote for every candidate for Governor, Republican, Democratic, Socialist, Prohibition, Social-Labor, straight across the whole ticket.

This machine registers one vote for governor (for instance) and no more even opposite gubernatorial candidates can be pulled down.

In short, this machine will not stand in any crooked deals; you can't beat it with any shuffling. You have got to vote honestly.

The fifteen machines sent to Los Angeles are regarded as an experiment. If they prove successful this fall, they will be generally installed in this county and city by the next general election.

THE PERKINS' PRESS.

Success that Has Been Achieved by S.A. Perkins of Tacoma, and Something About His Papers.

"The Perkins' Press" is the title of an attractive brochure, just issued, descriptive of the State of Washington, the city of Tacoma and the five flourishing newspapers, owned by Mr. S. A. Perkins, which are successfully exploiting the resources, progress and bright promise of Tacoma and the State of Washington. These papers are the Tacoma Daily Ledger, the Tacoma Daily News, the Bellingham Daily Herald, the Olympia Daily Recorder and the Everett Daily Herald. In addition to these newspapers the Perkins syndicate owns the Tacoma Engraving Company.

Tacoma's fine harbor, and the wealth of the country which is tributary to the city, have caused its population to increase amazingly. According to the Federal census and the most reliable estimates based on directory lists, the Tacoma School census and other sources, the population of Tacoma in 1890 was 18,714; in 1895, 27,000; in 1900, 37,714; in 1905, 47,000.

Tacoma's rapid growth since 1900 is due to the expansion of the ocean commerce of port, the rapid development of the territory tributary to the city, the utilization of its wonderful power resources and the phenomenal growth of manufacturing industries.

The Tacoma Daily News is the only morning daily in Tacoma. It was established in 1883. It prints the full report of the Associated Press and the Publishers' Press, and is a thoroughly progressive, up-to-date newspaper in every respect. Its circulation covers the city of Tacoma thoroughly, as well as all the towns and cities of Western Washington. The Tacoma Daily News was established in 1880. It is published every Thursday and consists of twelve to twenty-four pages. The average sworn daily circulation for the six months ending June 30, 1904, was 14,372 copies; the average sworn daily circulation for the same period was 14,372 copies.

Refreshing Changes in Styles.

New ideas that fairly compel one's admiration. Every fashion artist of note has come for ward with some particular design—but, as usual, only those creations emanating from sources of recognized authority are represented in this exhibit.

You simply cannot make a mistake here. We've looked to it that every garment in our house has Dame Fashion's seal of approval.

There's no other store in Los Angeles where you can buy suits, coats and waists possessing the style, elegance and shape-retaining qualities of these, at equally low prices.

A price-word of some of the new walking suits:—

At $15 Plain tailored suits of excellent serge chevots; short jacket, half fitting; full flare skirt, walking length—very jaunty, and tailored so they'll retain their jaunty air. Colors, tan, blue and black.

At $20 Walking suits of fancy mixed Scotch tweeds, in smart blue and white effects; belted box coats, three quarter length, with velvet collar and cuffs. New pleated skirt.

At $40 Walking suits of really elegant Scotch mixtures in light gray and green effects; belted Norfolk jackets lined with rich silks; full fancy sleeves; silk stitched collars; silk braid trimmings. Box pleated skirts.

At $50 Cravante walking suits in pretty double-faced Herringbone creases that are actually waterproof—certainly the ideal suitings for street and traveling wear in winter. Square cut tourist coats, length with belted backs and full sleeves. Skirts have inverted pleats in clusters.

If you profit by our free-cutting-and-fitting proposition you must get here TODAY. So many orders ahead that, with what will come in today, it will take all the rest of the week to complete them. As Miller & Miller can stay no longer, we're forced to close this offer all too soon.

Bridge Work Facts

In most cases where teeth must be extracted and replaced—probably by your case—the best method is unquestionably Crown and Bridge Work—best if best performed. It bridges over the tooth void. It new crowns available tooth roots. It restores comfort, efficiency and a natural appearance to the mouth without removing teeth that are sound and serviceable, and without the necessity of a plate in the mouth. The record of our work illustrates this method a best advantage.

DEMENTED MAN'S QUEER ACTIONS.

WANDERING FROM TOWN TO TOWN IN ORANGE COUNTY.

Offers to Purchase Stocks of Every Store He Enters and Always Threatens Residents—Bonds to be Issued for Improvement of Santa Ana Water System.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 20.—A young physician, well dressed and cultured but seemingly demented, has been wandering through the peatland district for the past three days alarming the residents by his strange actions, although he has attempted no violence. The man gives his name as Alton H. Neal, M. D., of Chicago. According to his story, he left Chicago several months ago and after visiting San Francisco came to Los Angeles, where he has been for a short time.

The first sign of him in this vicinity was before yesterday, when he came to Huntington Beach and offered to buy out several merchants and gave orders to teamsters to carry off the goods he had purchased. He evidently slept last night in a hayrack, and he visited several ranchers and said he wanted to purchase movable property of every description. Later he came to Westminster and visited all the stores with offers to buy.

The residents, fearing that he might become violent, took steps to remove him from the town. He was taken to the Huntington Beach police station, where he was held for a short time. A deputy sheriff found him but upon the refusal of the Westminster people to swear out a complaint, did not arrest him. Late this evening the stranger started south from Westminster, and continued his wanderings about the region. He is described as of medium build, dark, with mustache, well dressed and 24 years of age.

TO IMPROVE WATER SYSTEM.

A move looking to the remodeling of the city water system was made at the City Council meeting last night when the trustees decided to take steps for calling a special election to vote bonds for that purpose. The issue will be in the neighborhood of $60,000, which is the estimate of the water department of the contemplated improvements.

The changes include the extension of the system to outlying districts, not now supplied from the city plant and the laying of larger pipes over a considerable portion of the city. The growth in population demands a larger supply than can be given through the present pipes. The wells at the First Street station are large enough to furnish the necessary additional water, so that practically the whole bond issue, if voted, will put into improvements on the distributing system. A detailed estimate will be submitted at the next meeting of the trustees and at that time the date for calling the election and the exact amount of the bonds will be determined.

SANTA ANA IN BRIEF.

Ten applications are in the hands of the Board of Supervisors for the township of the county clerk in Santa Ana, in which a change is to be made soon. The appointment will be made at the next meeting of the board.

Col. S. H. Finley, chairman of the City Council and County Surveyor, left yesterday for a several weeks' trip to St. Louis where he will represent the city at the annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which convenes there October 4, 5 and 6.

A county veterinary surgeon will be appointed at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors to meet calls for such an officer which are constantly being received. At the same time an ordinance requiring a license for dogs to be dipped as a preventative measure against the Texas fever will be considered.

The commissioners appointed to appraise valuations and assess damages for the extension eastward of Third Street have filed an important report and property owners interested are being given thirty days to pay up assessments. The work of opening is to commence at once.

A special car left yesterday on the Southern Pacific with the following on board: Mrs. J. W. Mead, C. S. Forgy and N. N. Brown. The board of supervisors have ordered a special tax of $250 on each $100 valuation of the Talbert drainage district, formed this summer, in order to raise funds for work on new ditches and extension of existing ones. The tax will raise about $350.

The newly-created Board of Fire Commissioners was named by the City Council last night as R. W. Mead, C. S. Forgy and N. N. Brown.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. C. Galloway, cashier of the Commercial Bank, and wife, left today for several weeks' trip to Indiana and Canada, where they will be the guests of relatives.

C. F. Conwell and family are home from a trip to the Pacific coast. Dalton left today to spend an indefinite time with relatives at Warsaw, Mo.

Mrs. E. R. Bergin, who has been upon a visit with friends for some time past, departed for Connell, Wash.

Mrs. Eliza Downs and daughter of Santa Ana, are guests at the home of Mrs. Downs' brother, Rev. W. E. Shepard.

Everett Maxwell returned today from an eastern trip spent largely with relatives in Illinois.

Mrs. B. R. Holmes returned today from Corona, where she has been spending the past few days.

A. J. V. Adams and daughter of West Fourth street are home from an outing spent at Laguna Beach.

Mrs. Charles Huff of Los Angeles, is the guest of her mother, Dr. Willa Waffle on Bush street.

SAN BERNARDINO.

CONDUCTOR'S CLOSE CALL.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 20.—Frank Foster, conductor on a Tractor car, had a narrow escape from a bad accident last night, being knocked from the top of the car by an electric shock. The current was flowing from the trolley pole, which had flown into the air, by the breaking of the rope, and as the conductor was being knocked down the pole became caught in the trolley wire. Foster, though dazed by the shock, escaped without injury.

COMPROMISED CHEAT.

The Pierson-Guernsey damage suit which was tried a year ago, the jury returning damages in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $2000, has been compromised out of court for $25.

Guernsey's attorney secured a new trial on the ground that the evidence showed that Pierson had been wronged in suing to recover damages, was the result solely of his own carelessness. Pierson had lost a leg by the snapping of a cable, which was placed by Guernsey at his lumber mill on the mountains.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

John A. McGuire, arrested last night by the citizens of Barstow for burglarizing a residence, escaped from the jail at that place during the early morning hours, and has not yet been recaptured. His escape was effected with aid from the outside. It is believed that he belongs to an organized party of thieves.

SAN BERNARDINO BRIEVES.

The suit brought by John L. Campbell against the Lytle Creek Water Company, Fontana Second District, and Edison Power Company, to quiet title to 200 acres of water in Lytle creek, was argued before Judge Bledsoe yesterday and submitted.

The sensational mining suit instituted by the Fontana district against the Redlands to quiet title to the title of Mrs. Shaw to rich mines in the Yucapite, was commenced in Department Two of the Superior Court this morning.

The Board of Supervisors has fixed the county tax rate at 2.4th, the highest in the state, and the county clerk, William Cook, head nurse at the County Hospital, got into a row there last night, and was taken to the hospital, throwing the entire building into confusion, and this morning Cook was discharged.

HUENEME.

SEASIDE HOTEL BURNS.

HUENEME, Sept. 20.—The Seaside Hotel here was totally destroyed by fire at 3:30 o'clock this morning. The fire originated in the kitchen and was first discovered by the Chinese cook. He awakened C. C. Chivers, the proprietor, who, seeing that there was no possibility of stopping it, went through the house and aroused the guests. The hotel was a two-story building, the adjoining buildings, except the one next to the hotel, which was badly damaged. EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

PEOPLE of the smart set are so busy at present that they are scarcely taking time to see Kyrie Bellew in "Raffles." The Barlowe fete is the topic of about every tongue, and with the rehearsal of the vaudeville and Kyrie Bellew coming off the same night attention is divided and not a few are hesitating between the two, wondering which one they would better miss. Mr. and Mrs. John Singleton and Miss Lillian Graham and Orison Johnson will occupy a box tonight. Others who will attend are Mr. and Mrs. John Van Geison Posey, Mr. Oliver P. Posey, Miss Lella Simonds and Warren Carhart.

L'Alliance Francaise.

A meeting of L'Alliance Francaise is to be held at the home of Mrs. M. Bartlett of No. 147 East Twenty-eighth street Friday. It will be the first meeting of the alliance since before the beginning of the summer season. The members expect some important subjects to come up for discussion, and plans will be made at this meeting for the future of the organization.

Return from North.

Mrs. Como Morgan arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from San Francisco. She intended to stay in the North and to go from there east, but changed her plans, instead coming home again before making the trip. Miss May Ridgeway, who accompanied Mrs. Morgan, and who visited friends in Berkeley as well as San Francisco, is expected home today.

To Take Trip.

Mrs. Jane B. Ridgeway of West Adams street, with her two daughters, the Misses May and Katherine Ridgeway, are planning to leave about October 1 for an extended eastern trip. They will stop at St. Louis and also visit in the South, later going on to New York and other large eastern cities.

Miss Lou Winder will go on the same train with the Ridgeways, and will visit relatives at St. Louis for a month or so.

Arizona Maid Weds.

Beneath an umbrella of smiles and roses, suspended from a canopy of asparagus plumose, Miss Edith Brooks, late of Arizona, became the bride of Irving Baxter of this city, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride, No. 223 North Beaudry avenue, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The bride is a daughter of J. L. Brooks of Phoenix, Ariz., and was one of the popular and accomplished young women of that town. The decorations for the service were particularly attractive. The party stood in the large bay window, and behind her a canopy of asparagus plumose. From the chandeliers to the windows airy strands of plumose, and satin ribbons were stretched, while on either side great clusters of snowy chrysanthemums were attached with white satin ribbons which were held by two little ribbon bearers, Erna Bryant and Margaret Stewart. Clusters of chrysanthemums were in wall vases about the room, and in the dining-room where a wedding luncheon was served chrysanthemums and roses were used, white over the table and a canopy of asparagus fern and ribbons. Lights glowed over the house were softly shaded with white tulle, and ferns and potted plants added to the beauty of the arrangement. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine with a lace yoke and bertha, and long drooping sleeves. The skirt was made in the short round length with a yoke adorned with puffed and shirring. Her only ornament was a pearl sunburst, a gift of the groom. Miss Charlotte Ming, who attended as maid of honor, wore a soft frock of white crepe de chine with a three-flounce skirt, and trimmed with rows of tiny satin ribbon. The two little ribbon bearers were in white lawn dresses trimmed with lace and in their hair were pert little white satin bows. Victor Lockwood, a cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Eva Frances Pike was in charge of the music and during the service she rendered the Mendelssohn march and "The Bridal Song" from "Lohengrin."

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter left immediately after the service on their wedding tour. They will be at home at No. 223 North Beaudry avenue after October 1.

Confederate Daughters.

Los Angeles Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Johnston at No. 210 West Pico street. The house was bright with scarlet carnations and ferns. An official meeting was held when officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mrs. Albert M. Stephens was chosen for president; Mrs. William Johnston, first vice-president; Mrs. West Hughes, second vice-president; Mrs. Hickey Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. C. M. Hance, treasurer; Mrs. John Shirley Ward, historian; Mrs. Donald Erick, registrar, and Mrs. Matthew Robertson, custodian of cross of honor. After choosing officers, the delegates to the State convention, which is to be held in Los Angeles on October 2 and 4, were elected. They are Mrs. W. L. Graves, Mrs. Albert M. Stephens, Mrs. Cameron Brinkley, Mrs. John Shirley Ward, Mrs. Laura Calhoun, Mrs. C. N. Hance and Mrs. William Reid. The alternates are Mrs. William Johnstone, Mrs. N. L. Thompson, Mrs. John McCutcheon, Mrs. Olin Weiborn, Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. James Anderson. After the business meeting Mrs. W. L. Graves, the retiring president, was presented a gorgeous basket of carnations and ferns as a mark of esteem of her friends. Mrs. Robertson, who was secretary, was given a handsome bon-bon dish of silver as a token of appreciation of her services. After the business meeting refreshments were served, and a musical programme was enjoyed.

At Pastor's Home.

The Y.M.F. Club entertained the young ladies of Pico Heights on Monday evening at the home of Rev. J. M. Schaeffle at No. 1208 El Molino street. Mrs. Schaeffle was assisted by Miss E. Lodwick and her sister, Miss Leo Lodwick, in decorating the home in honor of the event. Follies and blossoms were effectively utilized in the adornment scheme. Games were played after which refreshments were served and a programme was presented. The programme included a talk by Howard Chipin, on behalf of the club, followed by an amusing talk by Miss Leo Lodwick; Miss Maud Jones rendered a vocal solo and this was followed by a toast from Lloyd Stagger and S. Pease also participated. Among those present were Miss Barbara Jones, Miss Maude McClure, Miss Rose Blair, Miss Lulu Moore, Miss Edith Meyers, Miss Inez Ragan, Miss Lytle French, Charles Blair, H. Chapin, L. E. Bigler, H. Bentley, C. Holt, Norman Lodwick and Ed Reese.

To Visit Mrs. Connell.

Miss Edwina Hammond of San Francisco, who was the guest of Mrs. Michael J. Connell last winter, and who won many friends while here, is expected to arrive today to stay for some time with Mrs. Connell. She is to be one of the assistants at the Barlowe fete, and as such will doubtless prove a drawing card.

Vaudeville at Fete.

The vaudeville performance to be given at the Barlowe fete promises to be of great interest, and there will be many surprises for all. Among others will be the whistling trio, consisting of

VAN AND LAWRENCE KELSEY.
Two little pages at Barlowe Vaudeville Show

Miss Hazel Bryson, Miss Agnes Woodward and Rae Condit. Miss Bryson will wear a white gown and great picture hat with a trailing pink plume, and Miss Woodward will wear cream color with large picture hat, and a yellow plume falling over her shoulder. Mr. Condit will wear a white flannel suit and Panama hat, and all three without doubt create sensation.

They will whistle "Navaio" and "Manzanilla," with a full orchestra accompaniment. The show is to have three performances during the afternoon, and three in the evening. The theater itself is a great white tent decorated with Chinese lanterns, flags and great bows of tulle inside. There is a seating capacity of 350, and a fairylike scene is to be presented when the lights are twinkling and the Chinese lanterns are glowing among the brightly tinted tulle strands. The curtain is a neat little production being made up of local hits, and advertisements from local business men. There are a number of young women who will act as ushers. They will wear white adorned-pleated gowns with broad red sashes, and large hats. They are Misses Letha Lewis, Katherine Mellus, Echo Allen, Alice Hart, Louise Bark, Lila Murietta, Miss McDermott, Lois Allen, Elvina Hammond of San Francisco, Emma Conroy and Sallie McFarland. Van and Lawrence Kelsey are to act as pages at the theater.

Connell, who has the vaudeville in charge, has labored assiduously and with good results. She has given her time to the management and will also appear in the show itself.

Burr-Lovelace.

All but the closest friends of Guy Lovelace will learn with surprise that he was married Monday night. Miss Myrtle Burr became the bride, and the marriage ceremony was performed at her mother's residence, No. 239 North Figueroa street, Monday night, only a few friends being invited. Leigh Sloth, a business associate and personal friend, stood up with Mr. Lovelace as best man, while Miss Elva Burr, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

The bride and groom left yesterday morning for San Diego, where a honeymoon of a week will be passed at Coronado. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Lovelace will be at home at No. 143 West Twentieth street, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell of "Ard Bevin," North Glendale, have at their guests Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McPeak and family of Ballymore, County An-Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay W. Adams of Ocean Park announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nonie Adams, to Carl H. Johnson of San Francisco. Miss Adams is one of the members of the younger set at Ocean Park, and is well liked among her friends. There are a number of small affairs being planned for her. The date of the wedding has been set for October 12.

Married at St. John's.

Miss Eva E. Browne of Dutton, Canada, became the bride of Edgar A. McCubbin of San Bernardino, the ceremony taking place on Monday evening at St. John's Church, the Rev. Ridgeley officiating. Mrs. McCubbin was a tailored costume of light gray and there were no attendants. The young couple will make their home in San Bernardino.

McDowell-Metcalf.

Miss Irene Marie McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. McDowell of No. 23 South Flower street, became the bride of Edgar W. Metcalf, the ceremony taking place at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

day morning, Rev. Walton Hall Daggett officiating. Richard McDowell stood with the groom. The house was decorated with ferns and flowers. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to friends and relatives.

Notes and Personals.

Mrs. Saph Haskins will spend the rest of the month at Redondo. Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Grist of No. 114 South Figueroa street have left for a trip to Denver, St. Louis and Chicago, to be gone about two months. Mrs. May McEldred and two sons, Harry and Ernest, arrived yesterday from Clinton, Mo., and are guests of Mrs. McEldred's mother and sister, Mrs. A. Weber and Miss Rose Weber, at No. 823 East Twenty-fifth street. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Woodliffe of Nashville, Tenn., after a two weeks' visit with the family of W. D. Woodliffe at No. 9 St. James Park, leave today for their home.

BAD BOYS LOOSE.

Eight Break Padlock on Detention Home Door and Escape Almost Under Officials' Eyes.

A wholesale delivery of boys at the Detention Home occurred at 10 o'clock last night eight of the most reliable youngsters walking out practically under the eyes of the matrons and attendants. The boys effected escape by breaking a padlock on a door in the basement. They passed out under the cover of darkness on New High street and through the Courthouse yard where a fleet group of them was caught by Mal Oliver, probation officer. There were thirty-one boys and girls in the home at the time of the escape. Those that escaped are Peter J. Neil, Willie Lee, Rufus Savoy, Burns, Sammy Poulters, Tony Tom, McGee and Otto Evans. None of them have been located.
